John Esser, who will be tried next, was on the stand all morning as a witness for the state, District Attorney Atkinson conducting the examination.

Esser testified to various dates and minor matters that are necesleary to the foundation of the state's case. He admitted that at the time of the alleged thefts he and his partner had herded a band of their own cattle to Beatty. The state contends that at this time they "rustled" some twenty head of cattle in all, eleven from the plaintiffs and the balance from other ranches, and that they rebranded some, trimmed their ears and dehorned
